Divided Christians have no answer for a divided world.

There is reason to believe that black marketeers in the building trades are more interested in profiteering than in providing homes and shelter for war veterans.

IN MEMORIAM

KRKOSKY—In Loving Memory of our beloved husband and father, Joe Krkosky, who was accidentally killed October 11th, 1944.

Remembrance is the rose that blooms Eternal—year by year.
Sweet memories clinging to the heart Keep a loved one ever near.
Ever remembered by his wife and son.

KRKOSKY—In Loving Memory of our dear son and brother, Joe Krkosky, who was killed October 11th, 1944.

Not dead to those who loved him,
Not lost but gone before;
He lives with us in memory
And will forevermore.

Ever remembered by his mother, dad, brothers and sister.

KRKOSKY—In Loving Memory of our brother-in-law, Joe Krkosky, who was killed October 11th, 1944.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Ever remembered by Eva and Johnny.

KRKOSKY—HYDECHUK

A quit wedding was solemnized in the United Church manse on Saturday evening, Oct. 5th, when the Rev. J. McKelvey united in marriage Lois, second daughter of Mrs. Hydechuk, of Stirling, Alberta, and John, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Krkosky, of Blairmore.

Mrs. Ann Aitken attended the bride while Martin Krkosky supported the groom.

A reception was later held at the home of the groom for immediate friends and relatives.

The happy couple will reside in Blairmore.

CANADA SAVINGS BONDS

GO ON SALE OCTOBER 15

The Dominion government's Canada Savings bond campaign will be launched on October 15th minus the fanfare and ballyhoo which featured the successive Victory bond campaigns, but Canadians entrusted with the success of the drive are anxious to "Put it over" to the same extent as the previous successful campaigns.

Rural Alberta, which set up such an outstanding record in the Victory Loan campaigns is being asked to do its share and reports received at the head office of the campaign at Calgary indicate that interest in the drive is at a high level at all country points.

The intensive organization which handled the Victory Bond campaign will not be employed in the current drive in that no house to house canvass will be made. Farmers, ranchers and towns people who desire to buy bonds must apply for them at their banks, investment companies, or from provincial government treasury branches.

The bonds will be sold in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1000, but purchases by individuals will be limited to $2000 worth of bonds. However, individual members of a family are entitled to purchase up to a limit of $2000.

The bonds issued will be of the registered type. They are for a 10-year period and will bear interest at 2.75 per cent.

Thousands of Alberta farmers and ranchers and residents of towns and villages throughout the province purchased Victory Bonds during the war and many learned the value of the "Savings" habit for the first time.

While many retained possession of their Victory Bonds, others used them to defray the cost of farm and ranch improvements, purchase of machinery, because of the valuable features of the bonds is that they are just as good as cash. In the event that bond holders require money quickly the bonds can be redeemed at any chartered bank simply by proving ownership.

The campaign opens on Tuesday, October 15, and will run for three weeks. No dollar quotas or objectives have been set but the results recorded in the various rural communities will be made public from time to time.

Co-ed: And when he insulted me, I told him that I never wanted to see his face again.

Friend: And did he leave you alone?
Co-ed: No. He just turned out the light.

Frank: See that gal? She's like a beautiful photograph in that bathing suit.

Dudley: Yeah, underdeveloped and over exposed.

Girl (on bus)—Don't you remember me professor? Why, some years ago you asked me to marry you?

Professor (in a daze)—Ah, yes, my dear. And did you?

MRS. STAN. HAWKINS

PASSES AT HILLCREST

On Wednesday at Hillcrest Gears claimed Elizabeth (Bert's) Hawkins, 31, wife of Mr. Stan. Hawkins of the Bellevue teaching staff.

Mrs. Hawkins was raised in Hillcrest and in 1937 married Mr. Hawkins when he was a member of the RCMP, and besides her husband leaves one child, Harold, a year and a half old. Also surviving are her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lethier at Hillcrest and seven brothers, one residing at Trail and the rest in Bellevue and Hillcrest.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow from St. Theresa's Catholic church at Hillcrest at 11 a.m. with Rev. Father Anderson conducting.

HILLCREST HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. H. McVicar are visiting relatives in Penitence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Carpenter are rejoicing over the birth of a son.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Association of the United church was held at the home of Mrs. J. Hyslop last Thursday evening. After the business meeting, lunch was served by the hostess.

Vivian McDonald was hostess to a number of friends last Saturday evening in celebration of her 14th birthday.

Mrs. Overton, of Los Angeles, is visiting here at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. Porteous.

The "Busy Bee" club, a United church group for girls, has been organized under the leadership of Mrs. J. Hyslop. The first regular meeting was held on Monday night, with 10 girls present.

Miss Lou Warriner was a guest of her sister, Miss M. Elton, at Cowley last week end.

VOLUNTARY T.B. MOVE-

MENT GROWS STRONGER

Fifty years ago the tuberculosis death rate was nearly five times what it is today, according to Eric Connolly, president of the Alberta Tuberculosis Association. Over thirty-three thousand people survived in this country last year who would have died of tuberculosis had this decline in the death rate not occurred.

"The voluntary tuberculosis associations have been to a large extent responsible for the increasing public support of tuberculosis control efforts," said Mr. Connolly.

In Alberta there is one provincial association, with local committees or branches in Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, Red Deer, High River, Cardston and Banff. All the activities of these voluntary organizations are financed by the annual sale of Christmas Seals.

Mr. Connolly is also president of the Calgary Tuberculosis Association, which is co-operating closely with the Department of Health and the Alberta Tuberculosis Association in conducting the first all-out, 100 per cent chest X-ray survey in Alberta, to be held in Calgary during the coming winter.

"Do you believe that dark-haired men marry younger?"

"No, it's the light headed ones who do it first."

"What," asks the sport page, "is the greatest indoor sport?" Off hand we'd say the greatest indoor sport is reading about outdoor sport.

"Everything should be done to reduce the amount of foodstuffs consumed by rats," asserts a writer. One interesting suggestion that the little beggars be provided with ration books.

MINERS VOTE TO ACCEPT

NEW AGREEMENT

On Monday miners of District 19, UMWA, voted in favor of accepting the agreement that resulted from the series of conferences in Calgary between union officials and operators the past few weeks.

Main points in the agreement are: $1.40 pay raise per day, 40-hour week and three cent per ton welfare fund.

Following is the vote in the Pass: For Against

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Nick Papp arr. is visiting Calgary this week.

The local people have been quite enthused this week gazing at the meteoric shower, which made quite a display of fireworks in the heavens.

Bill Kabatoff has purchased the Bryce Miller homestead, one half mile east of Cowley. He intends moving his family onto the property early next spring.

Linden Martin, who is engaged in the lumber business at Skookumchuk, BC, moved his wife and family there on Tuesday of this week, where they took up residence. Mr. Martin was formerly engaged in the trucking business here.

This marks the fifth consecutive rainy week which has interfered with the harvesting here; in spite of the holdups, a good majority of the farmers have finished threshing. There still remains several fields yet to be done.

Casey Casselman, who has been foreman of the A7 cattle ranch owned by Mr. Cross, of Calgary, over a long term of years, has resigned the position to take over the management of a dude ranch at Skookumchuk, BC, and together with his wife, Mable, left for that place the early part of this week.

A special meeting of the AFU was held in the Masonic hall here on Saturday evening October 5th, for the purpose of discussing the strike situation, which was conducted in a orderly manner throughout the strike period by the local branch.

The second of the community stock sales this Fall was held at Lundbreck on October 3rd when 536 head of cattle were auctioned off. Top steers went at 12.90, heifers 11.90, one steer owned by Luther Goodwin sold 12-13.00, cows 9.75 and calves 12.00. Buyers were Canada Packers, Burns, Union Packing, Coy of Picher Creek and Burton of Claresholm.

REPORT ON SHORTAGES

Nails, says an Albertan, were scarce even before the steel strike and now are almost impossible to find.

He himself was lucky, because a man had given him half a keg of nails only a few days ago. The man was a building contractor who had just finished work on a block of houses and was moving to another job.

The half keg of nails, said the contractor, wasn't worth the trouble of moving it.

In case this sounds like a fairy story, it should be mentioned that the completed job was a government housing project.

It was at a rather swagger affair. He had danced several times with a very lively number. As the music came to an end he spoke:

He—It seems funny, but every time I dance with you the dance seems short.

She—They are short. My boy friend's the leader of the orchestra.

C.B.C. FUNNY MONEY

The case of the CBC and its $2,000,000 is now in the lap of the Treasury Board.

In creating the Canadian Broadcasting Act some years back, parliament said that our corporate radio must not borrow more than $500,000 in any one year. The Government introduced, in the dying hours of the session, a bill which would have made the limit $10,000,000. The measure was withdrawn, in large part because of the sober, quiet and effective opposition of the Rev. E. G. Hansell, MP, who is a smart and hard worker even though he is in the funny-money corner of the House.

Following the bill's withdrawal, the Government brought in and had passed a $2,000,000 supplementary vote for the CBC. This probably gives the Treasury authority to lend that much, but has the CBC the right to borrow that much? The CBC act would seem to be the corporation charter. When convenient, the CBC claims no to be a bureau of government.

Perhaps the authority of the transitional emergency powers act (the peacetime extension of the war-measures act) could be legally stretched to enable the Governor-in-Council to override the CBC law. But even the mildest of Opposition critics might say "Tut-tut!" to that and thus cause Mr. King to blush out loud. And some members of the Opposition, including the Social Creditor Hansell, are no very mild.

Presumably the Treasury Board, which consists of Dr. Clark and subordinates, save responsibility to see that Mr. Hsley's cheques, large and small, are properly authorized, and maybe at this moment the justice department is trying to find a way out.

It would be particularly embarrassing if it were found that the CBC had spent most of the two millions before it was voted and now aren't sure they have the cash to pay the bills. However, an order for equipment which further to stifle competition in the radio field is a long way from delivery. And government institutions are notoriously slow pay at all times.

One problem the CBC faces (on the matter of slow delivery) is that the money must be spent before March 31st next, or returned to the Treasury. And that would mean a revolt, with probably a new radio committee dealing with CBC matters in less kindly fashion than the latest one.

Of course, parliament is expected to be convened on January 17th and perhaps between then and March 31st the bill withdrawn in August will be re-introduced. But that outlook isn't too good, either, for such a measure would certainly have a rough passage in both houses. The public is beginning to realize that the CBC as it exists is a danger to free speech, and would be an even greater menace if allowed to proceed with its monopolistic plans. The press of Canada is virtually unanimous on the point (the one exception being the Toronto Star) and, what is more important, is really voicing its opinion in a way which cannot be ignored by the government. The Printed Word.

A—You should have seen Mabel run the half mile last night.

B—What did she run it in

C—I don't know what you call the damn things.

Mother (from kitchen): Willy, are you spitting in the fishbowl?

Willy (from parlor): "No, but I'm coming damn close."

A young lady received a brassiere as a birthday present.

She said mournfully: "I wish that he'd sent the money instead. I'm flat busted."

Immigration Policy

THE SUBJECT OF IMMIGRATION is receiving a great deal of attention in Canada today. It came up frequently in debates during the last session of Parliament, and at that time it was announced that an inter-departmental committee was preparing a post-war immigration policy. The matter was also brought up in the Upper Chamber, when the Senate Immigration Committee brought in a report in which it was urged that a vigorous policy of selective immigration be commenced as soon as shipping space becomes available. It also stated that the subject of immigration is of the greatest importance to the people of this country "if we are to hold our place abroad and improve and maintain our standard of living at home."

Little Hope For Future

Canada has some 3,500,000 square miles of territory including large areas where there are valuable resources and rich land waiting to be developed. In view of these facts, the question has frequently been raised as to whether the present population of 12,000,000 people can expect to remain in exclusive ownership of so much land, when in other parts of the world overcrowding and many industries, deserving persons, look to the future with little hope if they must remain in their present surroundings. Those who favor an extensive immigration program, stress that it must be on a highly selective basis and that all those admitted must be the type of people who would be an asset to the Dominion.

Changes Made In Regulations

In 1931, when there was widespread unemployment in Canada, the immigration laws were amended, and unrestricted immigration was limited mainly to British subjects, citizens of the United States, and a few others in special categories. These regulations are still in effect, although recently arrangements were made to admit relatives of Canadians from foreign countries, if the Canadian relatives can guarantee to provide for them and arrange for their accommodation. It was also decided to admit some 4,000 unmarried Polish veterans who had fought in company with the Canadian Army in Italy. These men were brought into Canada on the understanding that they would work on farms for at least two years after their arrival. There is a strong opinion among many individuals and organizations throughout the Dominion in favor of a selective policy of immigration which would build up the population, settling our uncultivated land and providing wider domestic markets for the products of our farms and factories. There will be great interest shown in whatever action is taken in regard to this matter during the coming months.

New-Drug

Streptocillin Is Effective When Penicillin Does Not Respond
Certain infectious diseases respond effectively to penicillin and streptomycin treatment. Dr. J. A. Dempster, Toronto, told a convention of the Manitoba Medical Association held in Winnipeg.
Streptomycin, a fairly new drug, is not yet generally available to the profession although an increase in supply was anticipated, he said. The use of the newer drug will be effective in the treatment of certain infections which will not respond to penicillin therapy.

Price Control And Rationing Information

Q.—What are the numbers in ration book five of the ration coupons which will not be declared valid?

A.—The following coupons in ration book five will not be declared valid: R22, R23, R24 and R25 which were exchanged for butter, and Q5 to Q25, which were used for the purchasing of meat.

Q.—Is the paper situation really as serious as our merchants would like us to believe?

A.—The paper bag and wrapping paper supply is very serious, and will continue to be for some time. Housewives can greatly co-operate with the merchants by always carrying a shopping bag when they go shopping. Fruits, vegetables, canned goods and packaged goods can be put in the shopping bag without additional wrapping paper.

Q.—Several months ago, we are given priority on a new car. Now the dealer tells us that the priority certificate is of no value, and that he may sell his cars to anyone, he pleases. Is this correct?

A.—Yes, your dealer is correct. Regulations governing priority certificates and the distribution of new cars were lifted as of August 15, 1946.

Q.—I have an error in my new ration book. Should I return it to the local ration board in my district?

A.—Return your book immediately to the local ration board for adjustment.

Please send your questions or your request for the pamphlet "Consumer's News" or the Blue Book in which you keep track of your ceiling prices, mentioning the name of this paper to the nearest Wartime Prices and Trade Board office in your province.

High-Speed Building

Houses Are Constructed in Record Time Under New Method

A new system of high-speed pre-cast building, which enables houses to be completed within one week has been introduced by a Sheffield, England engineer-builder. The technique involves the use of molds of steel casting, which turn out cellular concrete sections faced with imitation brick, stone chippings or pebble like pieces of jigsaw all dovetailed to make a rapid and complete fit.

To Keep Witchcraft

Home Secretary Says This Is No Time To Repeat Act
LONDON.—Home Secretary Ede says this is no time to think about repealing the Witchcraft Act of 1735. The act might come in handy to check "unscrupulous exploitation of personal loss and bereavement," he told the Spiritualists Union, which had protested that the law hampered mediums.
Mr. Ede assured the mediums they need fear no prosecution unless there was evidence of "fraud or imposture."

SMILE AWHILE

Jones: "Heaven bless him! He showed confidence in me when the clouds were dark and threatening." Robinson: "In what way?" "He lent me an umbrella."

Don't worry if your job is small, and your rewards are few. Remember that the mighty oak was once a nut like you.

"What makes you look so dirty?" asked the neighbor.

"Well," replied the little lady of five, "you gave my brother a dime yesterday to wash his face."

At a local concert for the troops an amateur soprano "obliged." She sang or, rather, she warbled all over the notes.

At the finish there was a short silence, broken by one or two hand-claps. Then a husky voice came from the back seats: "Now give us the 'All Clear,' missus."

Caller: "I am so sorry your mistress is out. Do you think she will be at home this evening?"

Maid: "She'll have to be; it's my night out."

Tourist—Pardon, sir, but what do you do with all that corn? Farmer—Well, we eat what we can and sell the rest. We can't sell it.

Tourist—Oh, I see.

Tourist's Wife, (to husband)—What did he say, dear?

Tourist—He said, they ate what they could, and what they couldn't they could.

The teacher had recited "The Landing of the Pilgrims." Then she requested each pupil to draw from his or her imagination a picture of Plymouth Rock.

Most of them went to work at once, but one little fellow hesitated and at length raised his hand.

"Well, Willie, what is it?" asked the teacher.

"Please, ma'am, do you want us to draw a hen or a rooster?"

Binks: "I'm the happiest man in the world. I have the best wife in the country."

Banks: "Well, who wouldn't be happy with his wife in the country?"

Mr. Smith: "Your wife used to be nervous now she doesn't seem to show a sign of it. What did you do for her?"

Mr. Brown: "That was easy; the doctor simply told her her nervousness was a sign of age."

Youthful Father: "Our baby is beginning to recite 'Baa, baa black sheep, have you any wool?'" Neighbor: "And he's only eight months old?"

Father: "Well, he doesn't say all of it yet, but he's got as far as the 'Baa, baa.'"

LESS EXPENSIVE
The ancients blamed the planets for their troubles. That was less expensive than maintaining a government to blame things on, says the Brandon Sun.

Gazelle Boys

Who Run Fifty Miles An Hour.
Now Number Up To Five

JERUSALEM.—Gazelle boys—they eat grass, run 50 miles an hour and speak only the language of their foster parents—are on the scene.

First reported in Trans-Jordan some weeks ago, the gazelle-boys now number five. Each story is a little better than the last one.

The original report was that three hunters seeking the gazelle-antelope with large, friendly eyes—had found a 14-year-old boy living with a herd. They gave chase in a car going 60 miles an hour, captured the boy and took him to a hospital where he would eat nothing but grass and mumbled inarticulately.

The story was told in Palestine and Trans-Jordan bars and found its way into print.

Later it was learned the boy was the son of a Bedouin family living in the neighborhood and was mentally deficient. He is now in a hospital. He doesn't eat grass.

The other Gazelle boys subsequently turned up in Trans-Jordan, Iraq, Syria and Lebanon. One, the Iraqi, is being trained by oil companies to do a 50-mile-an-hour pipeline patrol. Another, according to the latest story, is being taught English by professors at the American University at Beirut, so they can learn what the Gazelles talk about besides love.

Uniform Trouble

Vancouver New Police Are Forced To Wear Plain Clothes

VANCOUVER.—The clothing shortage is interfering even with the city police department.

Board of Police Commissioners has learned that it takes "three, four or five months" to get new police uniforms.

"We have our new men going around in plain clothes, and we can't use them properly that way," said Police Chief Alex McNeill.

Used to Wake Up with a Headache

Now Fresh and Lively Every Morning

Here is a man who woke up most mornings with a dull headache. What a dismal way to start the day! But Kruschen transformed his life according to his letter—

"I used to wake up in the mornings with a dull headache. A year ago, I started taking Kruschen Salts regularly. Today, I wake up fresh and lively and can do my day's work without undue exertion. I find Kruschen Salts a great help, and have not been so healthy for a long time. I can recommend Kruschen for anyone suffering from headaches and constipation. I'll never be without Kruschen as long as I live!—E.P."

Dull headaches such as this man suffered from can often be traced to a disordered stomach and to constipation because of waste material which remains in the system. A small dose of Kruschen taken regularly in the morning promptly helps to remedy this condition. And that is how Kruschen acts to relieve such headaches.

Try Kruschen for relief of morning headaches and sluggish feelings. 25c and 75c at all drug stores.

Bagpipes Popular

Scottish Tourist Committee Believe They Are Attraction To Tourists

EDINBURGH.—The music of the bagpipes was advocated as an added attraction for visitors to the land of the heather and the mist.

Tourist-seeking Scots said, however, that salmon, venison and trout might prove more palatable to the alien than the native haggis—a sort of pudding of oat, oatmeal and spices.

The importance of the bagpipes to the tourist trade was emphasized in a report by the tourist committee of the Scottish Council on Industry published recently which added that Scottish music and displays of Highland dancing would prove "a very popular form of entertainment."

The Prince Albert coat was named not for the consort of Queen Victoria but for the oldest son, later King Edward VII.

War Prisoners Must Return To Germany

OTTAWA.—German war prisoners working on sugar beet and other farms in Canada, who wish to remain permanently in this land of plenty must return to Germany. That is the final decision of the Dominion department of labor and immigration, it was learned.

Originally, some 8,000 German war prisoners were sent to Canada for safe-holding during the war. About half this number have been returned, either to Germany or to England to assist in repairing bomb wreckage. The remaining 4,000-odd, under the Geneva convention, to which Canada is a signatory, must be returned during the present month.

Many employers of these German war workers have found them excellent farm laborers. Hundreds of the Germans, now well aware of what has happened in their motherland, are anxious to remain in Canada as farm laborers at going wages. In cases where such a war captive wishes to remain voluntarily, the Geneva convention can be modified to suit the case.

The question of permitting those Germans who wish to remain in Canada to stay after the one-year period of captivity after the end of hostilities has expired, has been discussed by officials of the department of immigration and labor. The chief economic objection is that there are some 30,000 applications pending from European refugees, who have relatives in Canada, for admission to this country.

More than 6,000 of these refugees' applications have already been approved, and a much larger number are in categories near to get approval as transport and economic conditions improve. Most of them are now being cared for in UNRRA camps in central Europe.

In view of these arrivals it was felt that there might be public objection, both economic and patriotic, to permitting any German war prisoners to remain permanently even at their own request in Canada. Hence, with the ending of the harvest, all of the Germans are due to be sent back to Germany during the current month.

RECORD FOR JUDGE

Chief Justice Harvey of Edmonton Has Longest Service in Canada
EDMONTON.—Holder of the record in Canada for the longest term on a high court bench, Chief Justice Harvey, chief justice for 36 years, received congratulations on his 83rd birthday, October 1.

Sitting on a submission of the Alberta bill of rights to the appeal court, he was offered best wishes for continued health and a long life by Hon. Lucien Maynard, Alberta attorney-general.

Mr. Maynard said he offered congratulations on behalf of the Alberta government, the Bar association and counsel in the courtroom. He said he doubted if the chief justice record on the bench ever again would be equalled in Alberta or in Canada.

The attorney-general made a slip when he congratulated Chief Justice Harvey on being 84. The jurist corrected him laughingly and said, "It's nice to have nice things said about you while you're alive."

WILL FORGET DEBT

Ottawa Druggist Is Writing Off Small Amount Owed By Ribbentrop

OTTAWA.—Harry Skinner, an Ottawa druggist, read of the death sentence imposed, on Joachim von Ribbentrop, former Nazi foreign minister, and said he was ready to forget a 35-cent debt.

Von Ribbentrop was once quite a figure in Ottawa social circles. (He came to the capital in 1913 and was well established when he left hurriedly a few days before war was declared in 1914.)

Just before he departed he bustled into Mr. Skinner's store, made a few small purchases, explained he was short of cash and said he would drop in and pay the next morning.

Mr. Skinner said he was ready to forget about it because Von Ribbentrop had other things to think about.

HELPS TWO WAYS

VANCOUVER.—Students of the University of British Columbia have contracted to sell their blood in aid of the campaign to raise funds for a memorial gymnasium. Students will donate their blood at Shaughnessy military hospital and give the proceeds—$20 a pint—to the fund.

VETO IS BLAMED

BRUSSELS.—The United Nations security council's balance "up to the present moment figures, 'hit to zero,'" Paul Henri Spaak, president of the UN, said in a speech. He blamed the veto. "As long as they (the major powers) are to defend their absolute sovereignty, no real peace is possible," Spaak told the Belgian Socialist party congress.

One gallon of concentrated mixture of insecticide will cover as much as an acre of certain types of foliage.

SUCCEEDS WALLACE

W. Averell Harriman, U.S. ambassador to Britain has been chosen to succeed Henry A. Wallace as U.S. secretary of commerce. Mr. Harriman plans to go to Paris within the next few days to talk with James F. Byrnes, Secretary of State. His former post in the London embassy is one to which he graduated from the U.S. embassy in Moscow. Prior to his service as ambassador to the Soviet Union, Harriman had served President Roosevelt as a top official of the National Recovery Administration and on special missions to London and Paris.

Canada's Wheat Exports Likely To Be Reduced

OTTAWA.—Total supplies of wheat for the 1946-47 season have been estimated by the Dominion bureau of statistics at 610,000,000 bushels on the basis of the first official estimate of 440,567,000 bushels for Canada's 1946 grain crop and an estimated carryover at July 31 of 70,000,000 bushels.

In its monthly review of the world wheat situation, the bureau said that would leave total supplies approximately 54,000,000 bushels less than in 1945 and would put exports during the coming season "substantially below" the 340,000,000 bushels shipped last year.

Production of the 1946 U.S. crop was placed at 1,167,000,000 bushels, 44,000,000 bushels above the previous record of 1,123,000,000 bushels in 1945. The carryover of old wheat at June 30 was estimated at about 101,000,000 bushels which, added to the new crop, gives a total supply of 1,268,000,000 bushels for the 1946-47 season, compared with total supplies of 1,404,000,000 bushels for 1945-46.

While supplies from the United States during the current season will depend upon the urgency of demand, present plans call for the shipment of about 275,000,000 bushels, more than 100,000,000 bushels below the export figure of the last season.

Moisture conditions have been "extremely favorable" for the new grain crops in Argentina and an estimated 16,200,000 acres have been seeded to wheat this year. Assuming an average yield, total production may exceed the 300,000,000-bushel mark, about 60,000,000 bushels more than that produced in 1945-46.

Offsetting this more favorable production outlook is the threat of extensive locust damage and the likelihood of an extremely low carryover of old-crop wheat at the end of this year. Consequently, total supplies for the 1946-47 season are not likely to vary significantly from those of the present season.

WEATHER IS FACTOR

Canadian Firm Making Furniture To Suit Conditions In England

COLLINGWOOD.—A reconverted aircraft plant here is making knocked-down furniture for the English market—and weather to match.

Due to the difference in humidity between this locality and the places to which the furniture is sent, the factory, scene of a new Canadian industry, has been fitted with humidifiers tailored to duplicate atmospheric conditions in England.

The plant is busy on an order for 15,000 bedroom suites, 2,000 of which have already been despatched to England, where they are assembled and finished.

FIRE ON LINER

LIVERPOOL, England.—Fire was extinguished within 20 minutes in the Cunard White Star liner Mauretania at her dock here. The fire was in a storeroom and was confined to smouldering cork insulation. There is no suspicion of arson but an enquiry will be held.

If you keep your dustpan well waxed, you will find it always looks clean, and the dust and dirt slips from the pan more easily.

QUESTION SETTLED

Vote On Free Navigation Of Danube River Carried Eight To Five

PARIS.—The American demand that the principle of free navigation of the Danube river be written into all Balkan peace treaties was accepted 8 to 5 by the Balkan economic commission over the loud protests of Russia.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R., Mich.) made his maiden speech before the peace conference in presenting American demands for internationalization of the river which is considered to be the most important single transportation artery in the economic life of Europe.

The Balkan commission, under Big Four orders to halt lengthy speeches, acted swiftly after American and Russian arguments on the proposal. The vote disposed of one of its most hotly contested problems only five days before the deadline for completion of all work in commissions.

CANADIAN APPLES

B.C. Making First Shipment Of 80,000 Boxes To Britain

HALIFAX.—The first shipment of British Columbia apples through Halifax this year will be loaded aboard the freighter Pacific Enterprise, scheduled to sail for the United Kingdom the end of this month, the vessel's agents said.

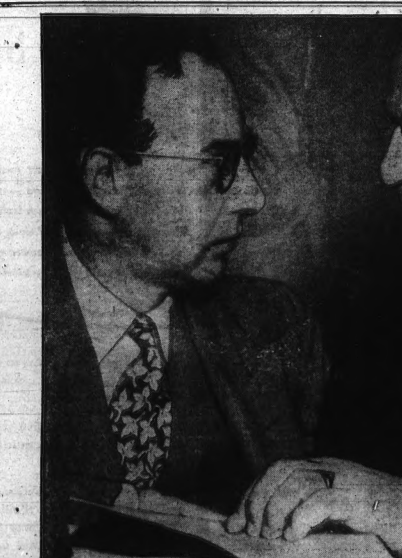

About 80,000 boxes will make up the shipment from the west coast. The freighter will also load 20,000 barrels of Nova Scotia apples.

ANXIOUS TO HELP

OTTAWA.—The people of Normandy, where many Canadian servicemen died in the invasion of Europe, are anxious to adopt the graves of the Canadian dead and tend them for Canadian relatives, the French Information service said.

THIRTY-MINUTE CANADIANS will buy Canada Savings Bonds and maintain the savings habit, learned during the Victory Loans of war years. Here are $70,000,000 worth of the new Savings Bonds being wheeled out of one of the huge Bank of Canada vaults at Ottawa preparatory to being distributed to banks and other financial houses where they go on sale. Joan Gilmour (left) and Gwen Tetlock have been Bank of Canada workers through most of the wartime government loans. Cons. W. J. Cairns, R.C.M.P., doesn't seem to find this kind of guard duty very irksome.

LOSING MONEY—RAISES SAY. Peanuts don't matter when you're dealing in coconuts, Henry Kaiser, shipbuilding tycoon, told a Washington committee investigating wartime profiteering. "How can I remember mere million-dollar details in a billion-dollar business?" the builder demanded. He is shown, right, with son Edgar F. Kaiser. They're losing money, they say.

JOBS ARE OFFERED

Farmers And Ranchers Around Swift Current Would Hire Polish Veterans

SWIFT CURRENT.—Definite word that the sale of the Polish war veterans being brought to Canada under a federal government scheme will be allocated to Swift Current district has been received by D. A. Kane, employment officer here.

About a dozen farmers and ranchers of the district, who had anticipated such a move locally, have already applied for permission to hire the men.

Federal regulations are that the men must be paid a minimum of $45 a month and contracted for at least one year.

NON-STOP FLIGHT

Plane Made Trip From Australia To U.S. In 55 Hours

COLUMBUS, O.—When the Truident Turtie, navy patrol bomber, landed at Port Columbus it completed a record-breaking non-stop flight of 11,237 miles from Perth, Australia. The unofficial elapsed time was 55 hours and 18 minutes.

The twin-engine Lockheed Neptune P2V, carrying a crew of four men and a baby kangaroo, thereby exceeded by 3,221 miles the non-stop mark of 7,916 miles set last November by the army's B29 "Dream Boat".

TO WORK IN NORTH

THE PAS, Man.—R.C.A.F. Lancaster converted bombers, operating from bases at Churchill, The Pas and Fort Smith, next summer will photograph Arctic Canada north of the 64th parallel. During the past summer three Mitchells photographed 200,000 miles of uncharted territory in the northwest territories and northern tips of the three prairie provinces.

RE-ELECTED

Percy R. Benough of Ottawa, who was unanimously re-elected president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada at the T.L.C. in Windsor, Ont. Mr. Benough has held this position since 1943.

MEN ARE NEEDED

To Bring Canada's Army And Air Force Up To Full Strength

OTTAWA.—Canada's peacetime army and air force has come into official being with both services short of their full peacetime complement, but the transition from "intern" to "peacetime" titles was purely a technicality.

Canada's peacetime army, slated eventually for 35,000 members, now has about 12,000 or 13,000 personnel. This includes about 2,800 officers—nearly the required number for the permanent force—but vacancies are still to be filled in specialist branches such as the medical corps and engineers.

The R.C.A.F., which has a peacetime goal of 16,000 officers and men, has accepted more than 9,100 of all ranks for its permanent establishment. Recruiting is going on at the rate of 400 to 500 a month, and it is expected it may take a year to bring the permanent force up to full strength.

ACCORD NEEDED

Has Become Urgent Necessity For World Peace Says Marshal Smuts

PARIS.—Prime Minister Smuts of South Africa declared that while insurance by Prime Minister Stalin are welcome, events in Paris and in the U.N. security council show a more specific accord between the great powers on general policies has become an urgent necessity.

Field Marshal Smuts expressed the view that war on an international scale is very improbable for at least a generation—and perhaps also for the generation thereafter, but added: "I do not see the new spirit or temper in the world on which we can safely build any assurance of world peace in a more distant future."

He made the remarks in a speech broadcast from Paris by the BBC. He termed the end of United States isolation from the peacetime world affairs perhaps the most reassuring feature today and said another encouraging feature was the change in British policy. "British imperialism is no more," he said.

SALE CONCLUDED

BORDON, Hampshire, England.—The month-long sale of 10,000 former Canadian army vehicles which concluded here realized $817,477 ($3,269,908), auctioneers said.

Britain Has Increased Old Age Pensions

LONDON.—Four million old people entitled to pensions of 24 shillings ($5.20) weekly instead of 20 shillings for single persons, and 42 shillings instead of 31 for married couples.

The increase will cost the government £80,000,000 annually ($20,000,000), but many pensioners have been receiving "supplementary" payments above the basic 10-shilling rate to help them with the increased cost of living.

A pensions officer said that when the means test is applied some non-contributory pensioners may find that the pension they receive will be less than 24 shillings.

As old people gained these new benefits, the working population began contributing more for its future security. Payments for health and insurance have been raised from two shillings six pence (50 cents) weekly to 4s for employed men between the ages of 18 and 65, and from one shilling eight pence to three shillings four pence for employed women between 18 and 60 years.

The pensioners now are payable to men at 65 years of age and women at 60 on condition that they retire from industry, but they are being encouraged to work beyond the pension age by receiving an extra shilling every week for every 25 contributions made, and two shillings in the case of a man with a dependent wife. This means a bonus will be added for every six months work up to the age of 70 and a married man then could retire with a pension of three pounds, two shillings ($12.40) weekly.

Problem Still Remaining For Allies To Solve

LONDON.—Aftermath of the Nuremberg trial faces the Allied authorities in Germany with decisions concerning the fate of tens of thousands of Nazis provisionally detained for security reasons.

It had been expected that the verdict on "criminal organizations" would create the legal basis for a permanent solution. In all cases whether the detained men are military leaders, S.S. men, high officials of the Nazi government, or Nazi party activists.

It has done so in many of these cases, but acquittals of both individuals and organizations may force the Allies to consider whether a man can be free of criminal responsibility and yet so deeply implicated politically in the activities of the Nazi regime that it would be unsafe to free him.

Under the Nuremberg verdict, a man will be considered a member of a criminal organization if he:

1. Belonged to the Nazi corps of political leaders in the Reich, or in a foreign country, or to the Gestapo or S.S. (Security Service), or to any formation of the S.S. as a non-conscript member in time of war.
2. Can be proved to have had knowledge of the general activities of a criminal character pursued by these organizations.

Beyond that, people can only be punished for war crimes in which they had a personal share.

This leaves two important categories uncovered:

1. People who served the Nazi regime in a responsible capacity as military leaders, officials or economic organizers, without belonging to any of these criminal organizations or committing individual crimes.
2. People who served in the criminal Nazi organizations, or personally took part in concentration camp atrocities, but did so before the outbreak of war. These people are left by the verdict outside the jurisdiction of international law, and their deeds were mostly "legal" under Nazi law.

The solution for the second category would plainly lie in a special German law, but at present no German authority capable of country-wide legislation exists.

BETTER THAN EXPECTED

WINNIPEG.—Thrashing returns in most Manitoba districts this year exceeded expectations both as to quality and quantity of grain, the province's final crop report for 1946 said. The bulk of the wheat graded No. 2 northern with some No. 1 northern and it was several years since grain crops were gathered in as early in the season or as satisfactorily.

GIVEN NEW POST

OTTAWA.—Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced the appointment of Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton as president and of three other Canadians as members of the atomic energy control board established under the Atomic Energy Control act passed at the last session of Parliament.

One of the earliest things man does is to accept a habit. As the various Victory Loan campaigns approached during the war years, about the first question a citizen asked was, "What is the objective this time?" Since money was needed to win the war and to take care of our men and women in uniform, this money objective in each campaign became a challenge to Canadian people.

Naturally, when the new issue of Canada Savings Bonds was announced, men and women promptly asked, "What is the objective this time?" And as they got the answer, "There is no money objective," they were momentarily puzzled. A lot of men without a goal to aim at just didn't seem fitting and wasn't easy to understand.

stand. It is literally true that no prescribed sum of dollars is sought during the sale of Canada Savings Bonds which opens on October 15th. This sale was not prompted by a desire to fill up the money bag of the Government treasury. It is being launched to meet the keen desire of thousands of Canadians to continue their program of regular savings inaugurated by the Victory Loan and War Savings Certificates campaigns during the war years.

However, there is an objective associated with the approaching sale of bonds to the public. It might be described as the determination of those who are responsible for the sale of bonds in all the provinces of Canada that all citizens shall have an opportunity to buy bonds. That is why the story of the canvass of the new Canada Savings Bonds is being so widely told, and why investment dealers and the banks are setting up facilities which will enable citizens to buy, no matter where they may be located.

Put another way, each Canadian sets up his own objective this time. Canada Savings Bonds have been created to help a man help himself.

POLICE AND PARENTS

(Hanna Herald)

The policeman's job is to arrest law breakers. It is not his fault that there are such people. There are far too many parents who run to the police in an effort to have him correct their children's misgivings. If the parents would offer to impart a little of their knowledge to their children, the work would be greatly lightened.

A policeman's duty is to maintain the law, and it is the duty of the school teachers and parents to see that the children understand and respect it.

THE GOSSIP

Have you ever heard of Gossip Town. On the shore of Falsehood Bay. Where old Dame Rumor, with rattling goss. Is going the lively day?

It isn't far to Gossip Town. For people who want to go. The idleness train will take you down.

In just an hour or so, The thoughtless road is a popular route.

And most folks start that way. But it's steep down grade; if you don't look out, You'll land in Falsehood Bay.

You glide through the valley of Vicious Folk. And into the tunnel of Hate. Then crossing the Add-to-Br-de, you walk, Right into the city gate.

The principal street is called Thesay.

And I've Heard is the public well, And the breezes that blow from Falsehood Bay.

Are laden with Don't-You-Tell.

In the midst of the town is Tell-it-Park.

You're never quite safe while there. For its owner is Madam Suspicious Remark.

Who lives on Street Don't Care.

Just back of the park is Slander Row.

THEY'RE BACK...

TO SERVE YOU

When you visit your bank these days you are likely to see faces you have long missed — members of our permanent staff back from active service. Almost five thousand are "back on the job" while others are recovering from wounds and others are still with the forces.

These gallant men who left the banks to enlist and have come back have shown themselves to be alert, self-reliant, eager to get on with the business of living.

Some of them have been away for five years or more. Many have won distinction. All have acquitted themselves with honour. All are welcome back.

In your bank these men find appreciation, security and opportunity for advancement. Our plans for them express our sincere desire that, in banking service, they may find ample scope to make their further contribution to this nation's security.

Why Tweed?

Tweeds were originally home-spun from Scottish Cheviot wools. For many years they were called twills. But Scottish tongue pronunciation tell as "tweed." In a certain lawsuit, it was read as "tweed," by one James Lock of London. It was the word "tweed," blotted or imperfectly written, which gave rise to the now familiar name. This was appropriate, since it was made almost exclusively on the banks of the River Tweed, in Scotland.

In EATON'S Catalogues, there's no doubt about whether a fabric is twill or tweed. Experts in EATON'S Research Bureau are constantly testing and examining merchandise, to ensure that descriptions are accurate. When EATON'S says it's all-wool tweed, IT'S ALL WOOL TWEED!

Questions and Answers

GENERAL

Q What are Canada Savings Bonds?
A Canada Savings Bonds are the successor to Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. They are your country's promise to return your money to you at any time and to pay you interest at an attractive rate.

Q Why are Canada Savings Bonds being offered?

A Because during the war, millions of Canadians learned the savings habit by buying Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. A recent survey shows that 82% of them want to keep on saving by a similar plan.

Q Is the Government selling Canada Savings Bonds just to raise money?

A No. Borrowing needs of the Government can be met by other types of loans. The main purpose of the Canada Savings Bond is to provide Canadians with a convenient way to continue this kind of saving and investment in peacetime.

Q Is there any limit to the amount of Canada Savings Bonds that one person may hold? If so, why?

A Yes. There is a limit of $2,000 for each individual, but each member of a family may hold bonds up to the limit.

Q What is the price of Canada Savings Bonds?

A 100%. That is, a $100 bond costs $100. If payment is not completed on or before November 15th, 1946, interest will be added to the purchase price.

Q In what denominations are Canada Savings Bonds available?

A $50, $100, $500 and $1,000.

CASHING OF BONDS

Q Can I cash my bond at any time before November 1, 1950?

A Yes, any branch in Canada of any chartered bank will cash your bond immediately at full face value, plus interest at 2% per annum, upon your identification as the registered holder.

Q Can Canada Savings Bonds be assigned or transferred?

A They can be cashed, but not assigned or transferred. This is necessary to prevent any individual from acquiring more than the authorized limit.

INTEREST COUPONS

Q What interest is paid on Canada Savings Bonds?

A 2%—payable yearly on November 1st from 1947 to 1950, by coupon cashable without charge at any branch in Canada of any bank.

Q Are interest coupons registered?

A No. They are payable to bearer.

REGISTRATION PROTECTION

Q Why is it necessary to register Canada Savings Bonds?

A Registration gives protection in case your bond is lost, stolen or destroyed. It is also the simplest way to ensure that individuals do not hold more than the $2,000 limit.

Q In whose name can Canada Savings Bonds be registered?

A They can be registered only in the name of one individual, adult or minor, up to the amount of the authorized limit.

Q Can Canada Savings Bonds registered in the name of a child be cashed?
A Yes. Banks are familiar with the necessary regulations.

Q Can Canada Savings Bonds be disposed of when registered in the name of a deceased person?

A Yes, any bank will supply the necessary information.

Q Can I replace my Canada Savings Bonds, if they are lost, stolen or destroyed?

A Yes. It is wise, however, to keep Canada Savings Bonds in a safe place, as you would any other valuable documents. In case of loss you should immediately notify the Bank of Canada, Ottawa, of the circumstances.

HOW, WHEN AND WHERE TO BUY

Q Where can I buy Canada Savings Bonds?

A At any branch of a bank or from an authorized investment dealer, stock broker, trust or loan company—or through the payroll savings plan if this is in operation at your place of employment.

Q How do I pay for Canada Savings Bonds?

A In any of the following 3 ways:

1. By payment in full at time of purchase.
2. By monthly instalments through a bank, trust or loan company.
3. By regular deductions from pay, where employers operate the Payroll Savings Plan.

Youth Of Europe

Although Spirit Appears Broken Hope
Is Seen For Their Salvation

Although the youth of central Europe appear broken in spirit, hope for them lies in such a rallying point as Dr. Hans Lile, assistant bishop of Hanover, one of the most heavily bombed cities of Germany, the Rev. Wilson E. Bergstrand, youth director of the Lutheran Augustana synod, said.

Mr. Bergstrand, who recently represented the American Lutheran Youth at a world council of churches in Geneva, Switzerland, said a youth religious meeting in Hanover, directed by Dr. Lile this summer was attended by 20,000 young men and women. Before the war attendance at such meetings was about 5,000.

"Some representatives at the world council of churches were, however, not too encouraged about the prospects of reviving religion among the young," Mr. Bergstrand said. "They themselves were too passive, and like the young patriots their passivity was caused by physical weariness."

"Despite the despair and passivity among the youth there is still hope for their salvation for daily the church is retrieving some of the lost youth."

THINGS TO COME

ERIE, Pa.—Mosquito-netting suits for hot weather are within the realm of fashion possibility, Paul Siple, a War Department biographer, told a General Electric science forum audience.

The netting should be held from the body by means of spacers. "Air flow will not be inhibited, but the skin will be protected from direct solar radiation and visibility," Siple said. "This will then permit the maximum utilization of air movement for comfort."

Confucius is believed to have been born in China in 551 B.C. and to have died in 479 B.C.

OUR COMPLETE
SHORT STORY—

When The Fire Falls

By GEORGE KAUFFMAN

Copyright
Whelan Newspaper Syndicate

THE snows of Austria glowed with an inner warmth as evening came over the Alps. Day always takes longer in the snow than in the soil. Caught within the drifts it lies hidden from the night in soft radiant light. A girl was skidding down a slope. Her skis cut through the bank like twin rapiers and threw up a flurry of snow as she arched from side to side in the wind. Suddenly she whipped out of sight and crouched behind a ledge like a snow-rabbit hiding from the hounds. . . . Soon she was joined by another skier, a man.

"The point is," said General Mott, of the Gestapo, "to leave tracks. Her skis leave tracks. Why don't you follow them?"

Young Captain Kroger hesitated. "For marks, yes?"

"So?" The General thought this over. "Come now, Kroger. You were ski-master at the Hotel Luuck. What did you do while you taught the fat Swiss to ski? Just teach them, it seems. And now many of these same Austrians are skiing over the Alps to Switzerland. This is fine, is it?"

Hotel Luuck was the ski-retreat of all Europe. Nestled in a glacial valley the hotel sat in the snow like an old hen over her brood of chicks, chalets which dotted the snow slopes. The past clientele never visited the hotel. The Nazi social set had taken it over, and General Simons gave hunting-skiing parties there for all the European quislings.

The night General Mott arrived to take a personal hand in the affair of the vanishing ski-tracks, the staff of the hotel had prepared the traditional Fire Fall, an ageless ritual of the people of the Alps. From a hanging valley burning embers were dropped, filling the evening with fire-shadows.

The General had finished his dinner on the balcony of his suite. "This is splendid," he said, taking a breath of the brittle glacial air. "One almost forgets there is a war on."

"Then why do the people co-operate with this underground ski-thing?"

"The silence of these valleys have affected even me, Captain, no?" "Here is the fire-fall, sir," Kroger pointed out over the balcony. From far up the night the embers began falling down the vast grey glacial walls like fiery serpents.

"Beautiful," murmured the General. "Just like a Nazi torchlight parade."

Then another stream of embers began trailing down the walls. As if pulled down by magnet they began to form a crude V on the night.

"Stop this," shouted General Mott, jumping to his feet. "Hunt them down. Making a fool of me, they. Hunt them down!" He turned to Kroger. "What have we ski-troops for?"

"Go get them, please. Place guards in all the villages. Shoot any civilian on the slightest excuse!"

Next morning the General was awakened early by his orderly. "You have just received word from field radio, sir, that they have captured the girl."

"Hail Splendid," laughed the General. "And you needn't tell me but the officer in charge was Captain Kroger."

"That evening the girl was brought to the General by Kroger. "Good evening," smiled the General. "I see you are beautiful. Mysterious women generally are. Tell me. Why do you help these Jews escape into Switzerland?"

"I help all who can no longer fight you inside Austria," she replied in firm level tones. "They continue to fight you elsewhere. This is no tourist business."

"You mean to say that you are not just helping the rich escape, but also putting out of our reach these criminal arsonists, these so-called patriots?"

"Every night and day. And when I am caught, someone else takes my place."

"This is fine . . . fine!" The General lit a cigarette. "Are you hungry?"

"Yes."

"Too bad. I'm not. All of a sudden I have lost my appetite." He thought a moment. "Come. We go down to Vienna—now. Both of us in my car. Kroger, you drive!"

The dull bluish light of the hotel garage clothed the General and the girl in a murky glow as Kroger drove up with the car. "You see?" explained the General as they got in. "I came here for a rest, but I find a fox. Ha!"

"Gardon," interrupted Kroger. "You seem to be out of petrol."

"Impossible," said the General. "My car is always serviced completely. I'll look in the tank." He got out and bent over the gauge.

A shot crashed out and echoed about the garage like a hollow drum-beat. General Mott slumped to the concrete floor.

A sentry rushed up to Kroger and reported. "Sir, I just shot a man running with your car."

"Good work, Corporal . . . I shall remember you for this."

Captain Kroger drove off. Out in the crystal night, clear and bright between the glacial walls, Kroger called back to the girl, "Climb up front. We have enough petrol for Switzerland."

MAY LAST INDEFINITELY

H. Moore, secretary of the food distributors told the British United Press in Winnipeg recently that the shortage in wrapping paper and paper bags is not a temporary one but "that it may last a long time, perhaps for years."

He says the shortage is caused by the unprecedented demand by the building trade and by UNRRA. He points out that consumers could make their own hold-all shopping bags and suggests oleotho, especially for the purchase of fresh meats and other commodities that cannot be handled unwrapped.

SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Port of Churchill Takes Block After Grain Ships Leave

CHURCHVILLE, Man.—After the last two grain ships of the year left for England, officials of this Hudson Bay port took stock of its 1946 shipping season and surveyed its hopes for next year.

When the eighth and ninth freighters—the Port Richelieu and the Hill Crest Puff—sailed they brought the port's wheat exports this year up to an unofficial 2,800,000 bushels, fifth best season in point of number of ships and possibly the third best in quantity of shipments Churchill has enjoyed.

In addition to the wheat, the Dalgleish line ships which called here this season loaded pit props and some miscellaneous cargo after discharging whiskey, curling stones and china.

Every carload of wheat or grain sent to Churchill went over the 1000-mile Hudson Bay Railway, a single-track line that cuts through the northern fringe of the Canadian shield and then runs fairly straight over miles of spongy muskeg.

Almost all the stevedores and dock workers here were brought in from the "outside." There were approximately 160 men working around the docks and railway sheds.

Showed Gratitude

Skunk Proved It Was Capable of Showing Appreciation

TORONTO.—Perhaps you never put much thought on the matter, but this story seems to prove that even skunks are capable of gratitude.

At Ontario's Muskoka Lake, a little striped woods puppy was indiscreet enough to get his head wedged fast into a quart jar. As he was pulling and tugging under a summer cottage, the owners heard him and came to investigate. They decided to shoot him to put him out of his misery but he got away. A few days later the woman of the house came upon the little skunk, his sore head still encased in the jar. Without stopping to figure out the consequences the woman eased the jar over the sun's swollen jaws. And the little fellow—with a long look of gratitude, scampered off into the woods, leaving the woman as scent-free as a windy day in April.

Border Crossing

Aviation Conference Asks That Such Passing Be Made Easier

Simplification of border crossing procedures for pilots of private aircraft was urged at the Northwest Aviation Planning Conference held recently at Butte, Montana.

"While the conference felt border crossing should be made easier," Mr. Rundle said, "representatives from both sides felt safety should be considered."

"It was stressed that pilots should not fly in strange territory without adequate information of routes."

"In this connection, the conference passed a resolution thanking the Canadian department of transport for its work in locating lost American fliers in Canadian territory."

COOKING FOR THE CROWD

Nearly every socially-minded housewife is at some time faced with the responsibility of feeding the crowd. It is a smart woman who can pull out of her file a few tried and true recipes for dishes that will adequately serve 20 people or more. Here are some recipes which have been tested on a large quantity. These will lighten the burden of the supper committee and add new variety to the menu:

Chicken and Celery Casserole
2 quarts cooked chicken (x)
2 quarts chopped celery
2 quarts white sauce
2 cups corn flakes
Cook celery until tender but still firm. Drain thoroughly. Use water as part of liquid in white sauce. Grease baking pans. Put in layer of diced, cooked chicken. Add layer of celery, another layer of chicken and so on. Four white sauce over top. Roll corn flakes into crumbs and sprinkle on top. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 deg. F.) for five minutes or until thoroughly heated.
Yield: 20 one-cup servings.
(x) Approximately two 5-pound chickens. Use chicken fat for white sauce.

Corn Pudding
¾ cup butter
¾ cup flour
1 quart-hot milk
4 teaspoons salt
¼ cup sugar
2 qts. canned corn, cream style
8 eggs

3 cups oven-popped rice cereal
1 tablespoon butter
Make white sauce; melt butter; add flour. Mix until smooth. Add hot milk slowly, stirring constantly. Cook sauce over hot water, stirring until thickened. Add salt and sugar to corn mix with white sauce. Beat eggs and add to corn mixture. Turn into greased shallow pans 10 x 1½ inches.

Crush rice cereal into crumbs; melt butter and add to cereal. Sprinkle mixture over corn in baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake 15 minutes at 375 deg. F. Lower temperature to 350 deg. F. and continue baking for 45 minutes. Serve at once. Yield: 20 servings.

FORM WORLD ASSOCIATION

The International medical conference held in London decided to establish a world medical association composed of national associations. It will promote closer ties among the various world organizations and among individual doctors with the aim of helping all peoples to attain the highest possible level of health.

Henri Becquerel discovered radioactivity in 1896.

Using New Material

Colored Plastic Replacing Wood

Flanking As Decks For Ships
The wooden planks of the Mauretania's decks are to be replaced by colored plastic. This new decking, which is just as strong as wood planking, has a number of advantages over the old type; it is easily washable, does not need hollytinting, and will not absorb oil or grease. This plastic decking is a Clydeside development. Green plastic has been tried successfully in the Blackburn, a vessel in naval service. It is claimed to be springy underfoot, proof against tropical heat or Arctic cold, and will not catch fire. It is resistant to the eyes against sea glare.

Another use of plastics in British shipyards is on the Queen Elizabeth, whose hull is being treated below the waterline with a plastic composition.

Plastic Perspex

To Be Used in Repairing Defective Skulls

LONDON.—The plastic perspex, already extensively used in surgery, is also being used to repair defective skulls. Maj. George Blaine, M.D., reports in a current issue of the medical press.

Facial bones, the article says, could be corrected easily by the use of a plastic that can be molded to required shape. A missing nose or ear could be "masked" with a substance possessing the consistency, coloring and feel of the part to be replaced.

Dr. Blaine stated that certain types of plastics could be absorbed in living tissue.

Concrete and cement are not synonymous—cement is just one of the ingredients of concrete.
